

For Immediate Release

Edward H. Lamb, FACHE, Installed as ACHE Chairman

CHICAGO, March 14, 2016—Edward H. Lamb, FACHE, division president, western division, IASIS Healthcare, South Jordan, Utah, has assumed the office of Chairman of the American College of Healthcare Executives. Lamb was installed March 12 at the Council of Regents Meeting preceding ACHE's 59th Congress on Healthcare Leadership.

Lamb received the gavel from ACHE's outgoing Chairman, Richard D. Cordova, FACHE, president emeritus, Children's Hospital Los Angeles. As Chairman, Lamb will serve the second part of a three-year term in ACHE's consecutive chairmanship offices: Chairman-Elect, Chairman and Immediate Past Chairman.

Board certified in healthcare management as an ACHE Fellow, Lamb served as an ACHE Governor from 2010 to 2013, and as the ACHE Regent for Alaska from 2001 to 2006. He also has served on numerous ACHE committees.

About the American College of Healthcare Executives

The American College of Healthcare Executives is an international professional society of 40,000 healthcare executives who lead hospitals, healthcare systems and other healthcare organizations. ACHE's mission is to advance its members and healthcare management excellence. ACHE offers its prestigious FACHE[®] credential, signifying board certification in healthcare management. ACHE's established network of 79 chapters provides access to networking, education and career development at the local level. In addition, ACHE is known for its magazine, Healthcare Executive, and its career development and public policy programs. Through such efforts, ACHE works toward its vision of being the preeminent professional society for healthcare executives dedicated to improving health. The Foundation of the American College of Healthcare Executives was established to further advance healthcare management excellence through education and research. The Foundation of ACHE is known for its educational programs—including the annual Congress on Healthcare Leadership, which draws more than 4,000 participants—and groundbreaking research. Its publishing division, Health Administration Press, is one of the largest publishers of books and journals on health services management, including textbooks for college and university courses.
